

Present Simple to be

Where are you?

Past Simple to be

Was Ms. Smith
your doctor?

Present Simple to be

Are you hungry?

How to play grammar matching game

With a class

- Hand out one card to each student.
- Let them wander in the room and read their cards to their peers.
- Student A reads the card to student B.
Student B reads the card to student A
- They mustn't show their cards to each other.
- If the cards match (= the pictures match) they sit down.
- You may limit the time and make the game faster and more challenging.

The winners can be the first ones, or everybody.

Present Simple to be

We are in the park.

Past Simple to be

No, she wasn't.
She was my teacher.

Present Simple to be

Yes, I am.
I'm hungry.

How to play grammar matching game Memory / concentration game

The aim of the game is to collect as many pairs as possible.

- Shuffle the cards and lay them out on the table face down.
- The first player turns two cards over and reads them.
- If the two cards match (question and answer / same picture), the player takes the cards and put them aside.
- The player then has another turn for making a match and goes again.
- If the cards are not a match they are turned back over and it is now the next player's turn.
- You play until all the cards are taken.

The winner is the player with the most pairs.