

By the time they get back, Jim has forgotten all his fears.

5. TROUBLE ON BOARD

The Hispaniola sets sail for Treasure Island.

Long John finds ways to move around the ship as fast as any other man.

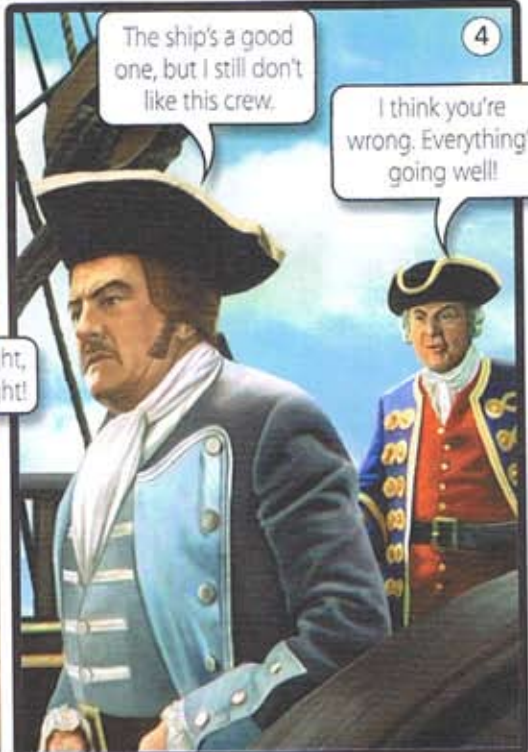

He's no ordinary man; he knows a lot and is brave like a lion, too.

Jim likes to visit Long John in the ship's galley.

Now this bird of mine – Captain Flint's her name – is 200 years old! She says that because of all the treasure she's seen.

Pieces of eight, pieces of eight!

The ship's a good one, but I still don't like this crew.

I think you're wrong. Everything's going well!
