

Peter and Pepper start their adventure. They walk for a long time. They come to a space village. They look at the map. What can they see?

They look at the map. They have to go south. They arrive at a forest. The trees are round with blue and red leaves. It is different here. They see a blue elephant!

