

"What were you thinking, Daniela?" asks Gemma. "You burned the sneakers and then you put the juice all over John."

"I was trying to help," says Daniela.

"Well, stop helping!" says John angrily. "When you help, you just make more trouble!"

Daniela sees a picture of a big bear. She thinks, "I must be careful. There are bears here. I must think!"

Later, Daniela walks through the camp. She thinks about the sneakers and the jugs. "Why do I do those things?" she thinks. "I must be more careful. And now my friends are angry with me. Well, not all my friends. Faye isn't angry with me."

Daniela decides to go and see Faye. "I need to talk to Faye," she thinks. "She won't be angry with me."
