

The next morning, Crazy Cat went to see Fat Old Rat.

'I want to go to the stars,' he said.
'Can you help me, please?'

Fat Old Rat licked his long whiskers.

'The stars are hard to find,' he said.
'First, you must look for an animal with no legs.
Ride on its back until you come to a ladder with no steps. Go up the ladder.
The stars will be at the top.'
