

Of course I will help you! That's what friends are for! Let me think... I know that hair spray takes out fresh ink stains. Do you have any hair spray?"

"I think we have some, somewhere. I will find it!"

We searched and searched – and we found it! We sprayed a lot of it on the stain, again and again...but the stain was still there!

"Okay – what do we do now?" Tzippy asked me.

"We can wash it in the washing machine!" I suggested.

"Good idea!" Tzippy said, and we ran to the laundry room. We put a lot of stain remover on the pen mark, and a lot of laundry powder in the machine. We turned on the machine.

"Now we say Tehillim!" Tzippy declared. We said Tehillim until the machine stopped.
