

Later, Jimmy sees Mark and Sarah. He tells them about the race and Mr. Williams. Jimmy is angry with Mr. Williams. "Mr. Williams says I can't be in the 800 meter race," he tells Mark.

"Really? That's strange," says Mark. "You often race in your wheelchair."

Sarah says, "Listen, Jimmy, maybe I have an idea. You must talk to Mr. Roberts, the principal."

"Yes, I will," he says.

Later, Jimmy goes to see Mr. Roberts and Mr. Williams. Jimmy says, "Mr. Williams says I can't be in the 800 meter race. Why can't I be in the race?" he asks.

"Well . . .," Mr. Williams replies. "It's because you're in a wheelchair. And you won't win."

Mr. Roberts says, "Mr. Williams, Jimmy just wants to be in the same race with Anthony. He doesn't want to win."

