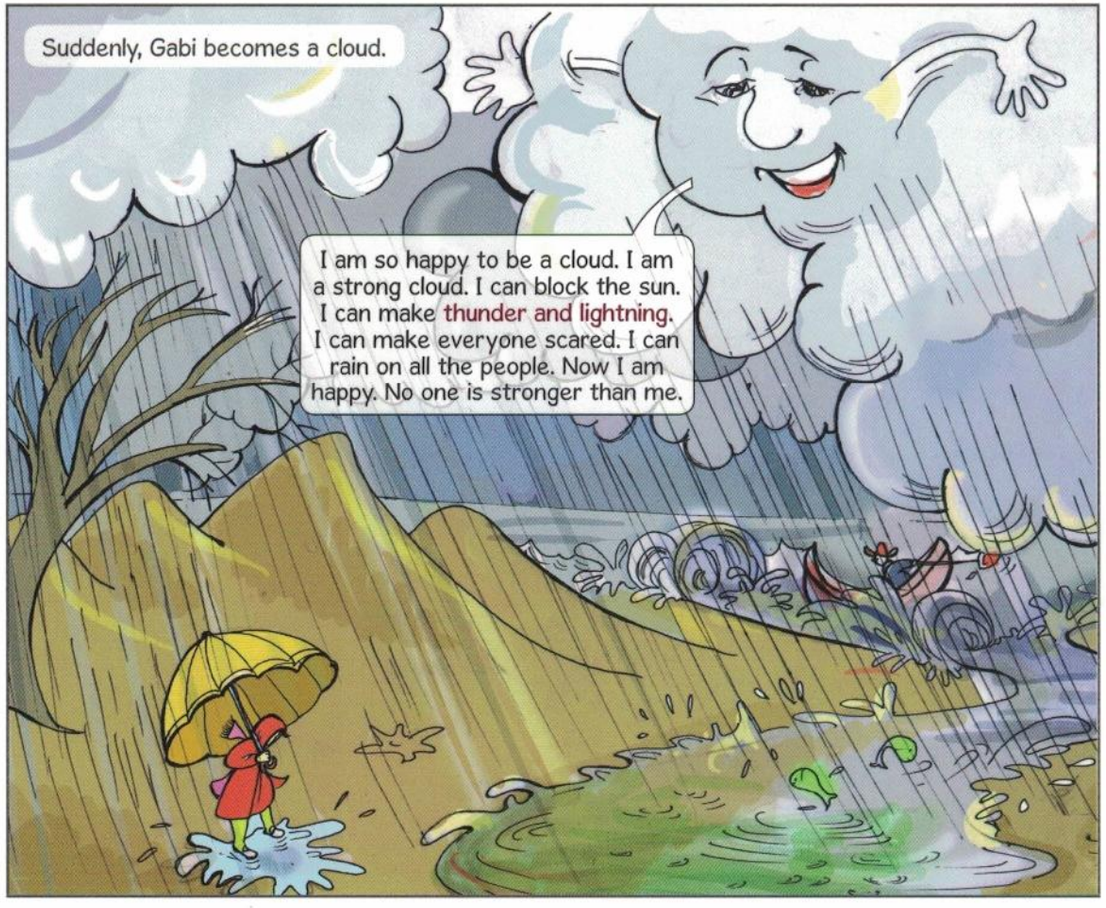
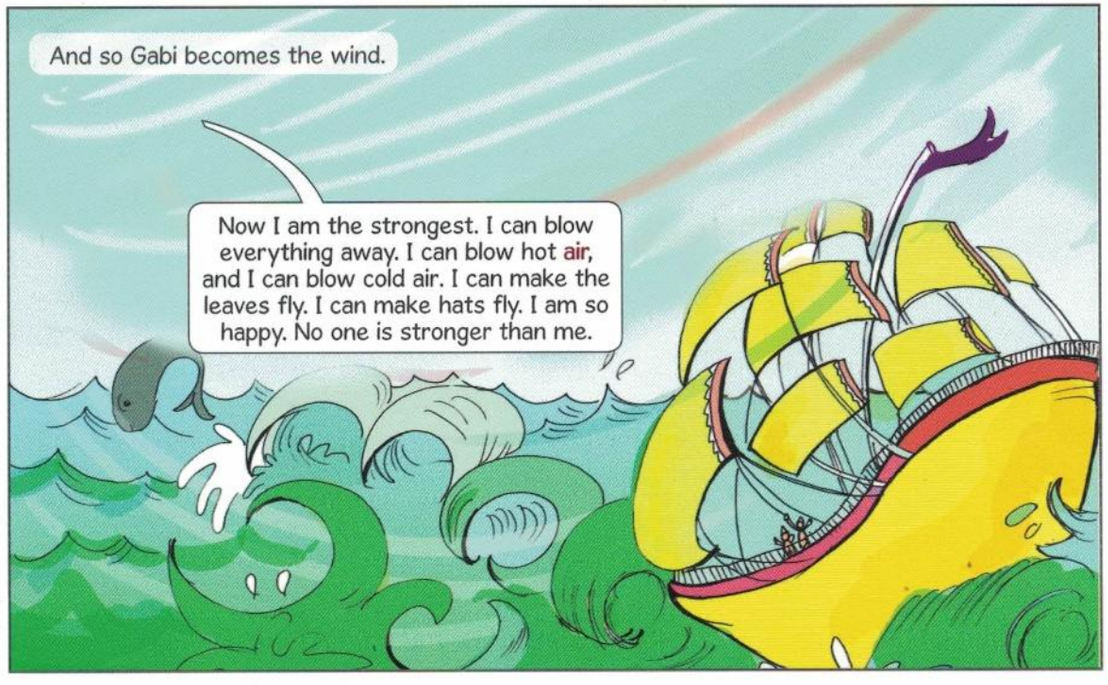
Suddenly, the clouds come out and block the sun. Gabi the sun shouts,
"Oh, no! The clouds are blocking me. Soon no one will see me. The clouds are stronger than the sun. Oh! I wish I were a cloud."



Suddenly, Gabi becomes a cloud.
I am so happy to be a cloud. I am a strong cloud. I can block the sun. I can make thunder and lightning. I can make everyone scared. I can rain on all the people. Now I am happy. No one is stronger than me.

Suddenly, a wind comes and blows Gabi the cloud away.
Oh no! What's happening? The wind is blowing me away. Is the wind stronger than the clouds? Oh! I wish I were the wind.



And so Gabi becomes the wind.
Now I am the strongest. I can blow everything away. I can blow hot air, and I can blow cold air. I can make the leaves fly. I can make hats fly. I am so happy. No one is stronger than me.
