

Book Tasks

Choose one of the following book tasks. Write it in your own words. If there is something else which you would like to do, please consult with me first!

Should be approximately 100-150 words long:

1. Write a different beginning or ending to the story.
2. Write a continuation / sequel to the story.
3. Write a letter to the author, asking questions about the book and the writing process.
4. Write a correspondence between two of the characters in the book.
5. Write a diary for one of the characters.
6. Rewrite the story from a different point of view.
7. Interview one of the characters.
8. Rewrite the story in a different genre, e.g., write a poem based on a story.
9. Write a quiz or test on the story (at least twelve questions, plus an answer key at the end).
10. Write a review of a book for a newspaper.
11. Write one or more news reports about an event / events which took place in the story.
12. Draw a map showing where the story takes place; describe what happens in each place (at least 3 places).
13. Design a new cover for the book, with a blurb on the back (in your words!).
14. Do a summary of the story in comic strip form.
15. Do an arts and crafts project connected to the book, with captions.

... or any other creative idea which connects to the book you have read! (with writing)

Please DO NOT write a summary of the book – that is not a book task!

Good Luck!