

Then Heidi runs fast to the top of the mountain. Grandfather is sitting outside; Heidi falls into his arms.

Grandfather: You are home again Heidi!

Heidi: Oh, Grandfather, they were very good to me.... but I was unhappy! I wanted to be here with you!

Soon Heidi gets strong again. She goes up to the mountain with Peter and the goats every day.

Heidi: Peter, I can teach you to read. You can read stories to Grandmother!

Peter: No, I can't do it – I can't read!

Heidi: Oh, Peter it isn't difficult – you just have to try!

And so, Heidi teaches Peter to read. Heidi is very happy to be back!
