

SENIOR CITIZENS SCALE MOUNT EVEREST – ANSWERS

1. Yuichiro Miura prepared himself / trained for his expedition to Mount Everest OR Yuichiro Miura succeeded in reaching the summit of Mount Everest / the world's highest mountain (at the surprisingly advanced age of seventy-five)
2. i
3. ii
4. Miura spent three long years preparing for his expedition. // Miura prepared rigorously for his expedition. // Miura reached a high level of preparation (for his expedition).
5. (That) the physical challenges of climbing dangerous mountains / mountains as dangerous as Mount Everest can be too much for many senior citizens.
6. the risks of dying are for people climbing Mount Everest OR risks age can bring when climbing Mount Everest // the danger of climbing Mount Everest at an older age is (or any other suitable phrasing)
7. Although the Japanese think that mountain climbing is good for the elderly // mountain climbing keeps the elderly fit and healthy // mountain climbing helps the elderly stay fit and healthy (or any other suitable phrasing)
researchers recommend that older climbers stay away from Mount Everest and other high mountains OR say that climbing Mount Everest over the age of sixty greatly increases the risk of dying (or any other suitable phrasing)