What animals do you see in the picture? Which ones are in the tree?

Once upon a time, there was an elephant who lived happily with her friends in the jungle. The elephant was kind and friendly. "Good morning, everyone!" said the elephant. "Good morning, Erin!" answered the animals.
"Did you sleep well?" asked Dani the deer. "It's time for breakfast, isn't it?" asked Henry the horse. "After that, we can play, can't we?" asked Mike the monkey. "Yes! We can play in the trees!" said Sarah the snake.
"I slept well, thank you! But I just woke up and want to go for a walk. We'll have breakfast and we'll play when I return," Erin said.
